

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear deviation from the mandate of their FCC license. To present a 90 minute "documentary" attacking one of the Presidential candidates violates any remnant of the Fairness Doctrine which is left. For Sinclair to say they would be happy to have John Kerry come on air after the program and refute the charges is the height of cynicism and for the FCC to go along with such nonsense would be a travesty.

Please stop this attack on Free Speech and on our democratic form of government.

Thank you,
Susan Adelman